

Emergency Phone Numbers

Keep this list of telephone numbers near your phone so you know who to call for any situation.

Write Your Family's Contact Information Here

One of the steps in developing a family emergency plan is knowing how to contact each other. Write important phone numbers for each family member in this space.

Write Down Your Family Meeting Point Location

It's important for all family members to know where to meet in the event of an emergency inside your home. Use this space to record your meeting point.

Write Your Doctor's Phone Number Here

Keep the phone number for your doctor handy. He or she can provide advice on medical questions and guidance on your medical conditions.

Write Your Insurance Agent's Phone Number Here

Contacting your insurance agent after a disaster will help you get started on the process of filing claims. Also be sure to take pictures of damage, if it's safe to do so.